

I feel that the legislation curently being proposed on removing limits to media ownership will further increase the size and control of the media monopolies which already control too much of the media outlets.

This legislation, if passed, threatens to further erode the media diversity which is essential to preserving a free democracy.

Please note my strong opposition to this legislation and I encourage the FCC to return to it's true responsibilites of representing the public, not big business.

Thank you.

Toshi Hoo
US Citizen